Sub-fields of Political Science

➤ Following are the sub-fields of Political Science :

- Sociology
- Economics
- Anthropology
- Psychology
- History

Sociology

The term 'Sociology' is a combination of two words; 'Socio' means 'Society' and 'logy' means 'to study'. Thus sociology means the study of society.

It involves both formal and informal behaviors of people.

Economics

Economics is the social science that studies economic activity to gain an understanding of the processes that govern the production, distribution and consumption of goods in a country.

Anthropology

Anthropology is the study of humans' past and present.

To understand the complexity of cultures across all of human history, anthropology draws knowledge from the social and biological sciences as well as the humanities and physical sciences.

Psychology

Psychology is an academic and applied discipline that involves the scientific study of mental functions and behaviors.

History

➤ The branch of knowledge that records and analyzes past events, is known as history.

➤ "History has a long-range perspective"

(Elizabeth Gurley Flynn).
