Agenda 1:

The meeting was presided over by the honourable Teacher-in-Charge Mr. Manohar Kumar, Saltora Netaji Centenary College. The honourable Teacher-in-Charge informed the house that the cell has received one formal and one verbal complaint during the last academic session. He has conveyed that some girl students have verbally requested him to clean the bathrooms more frequently, preferably every day. Although it was not a formal complaint, the coordinator has assured that each and every complaint shall be properly taken care of. The college sweeper (casual worker) shall be asked to do the needful.

Some students have submitted an application letter asking for water coolers in the campus. The Teacher-in-Charge have assured the house that it shall be arranged promptly as students are finding it difficult to drink waters which is becoming very hot due to scorching summer.

Since there were no other issues, the meeting was ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
